With Love We Remember

When is a Man a Mason

When he can look out over the rivers, the hills, and the far horizon with a profound sense of his own littleness in the vast scheme of things, and yet have faith, hope and courage—which is the root of every virtue.

When he knows that down in his heart every man is as noble as himself, and seeks to know, to forgive, and to love his fellowmen.

When he knows how to sympathize with men in their sorrows, yea, even in their sins—knowing that each man fights a hard fight against many odds.

When he has learned how to make friends and to keep them, and above all how to keep friends with himself.

When he can be happy and high minded amid the meaner drudgeries of life.

When no voice of distress reaches his ears in vain, and no hand seeks his aid without response.

When he knows how to pray how to love how to hope.

When he has kept faith with himself, with his fellowman, with his God; in his hand a sword for evil, in his heart a bit of song—glad to live, but not afraid to die.

Such a man has found the only real secret of Masonry, and the one which it is trying to give all the world.

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.
